Principal

There is an old Chinese proverb which states that "One picture is worth more than 10,000 words." The many illustrations in this annual are a valuable record of this year's activities. These pictures, together with the names and other printed material, make this 1948 book one to be treasured through the years.

9A ACTIVITIES

Dining and dancing were enjoyed by the 9A classes and faculty at the annual class banquet, held June 7, in the girls' gym.

Ruth Glass acted as toastmistress and other student speakers were Marilyn Bain, Art Arnst, and Robert Doran.

Honored guests were Chester F. Miller, superintendent of schools; I.M. Brock, principal of Arthur Hill; Stephen H. Lyttle, principal of Saginaw High; Floyd Allen, principal of Trade School, and Maurice M. Guy.

Mrs. Pankonin was in charge of the program. Mrs. Hanson headed the banquet committee; Mrs. Miner was class adviser.

Eighth grade classes were guests of the graduation class at the 9A assembly which was held June 3. J. Rexford Holmes, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, was the principal speaker.

The class will and prophecy were presented in skits. Mrs. Wieneke and Mr. Eynon were in charge. Music was furnished by both the vocal and instrumental departments. A final feature of the program was the presentation of gold pins to the honor students.

1947-8 CALENDAR

September

On September 9, South opened its door
To welcome the pupils back once more.

October

A jolly time was had by all
When South entertained at the "Spooksman's Ball."

November

We get to expect, each year it's the same,
For our girls to be champs at the vollyeball game.
They did it again, we're here to relate
And honor and praise these lassies do rate.
"Meet the Duchess," our all school play
Was really a "doozy," if we do say.
South's students were busy as bees in a hive
When they worked to earn money for our Red Cross Drive.

December

This year Christmas brought its usual thrills
And a Christmas vacation with cold weather chills.

January

Once more our semester came to an end,
Bringing vacation time back again.

February

Our Valentine party proved not a flop,
When South School pupils enjoyed the "Heart Hop."
Congratulations to our championship teams
Our basketball boys were sure on the beam.
Grandpaw didn't do better, when he went to school,
Then our "Honor Students" did who followed the rule.

March

March brought Easter and a snowstorm too,
We received a vacation when one was not due.
South School Circus came to town,
With girls on ladders and funny clowns.

April

"A Case of Springtime" was this year's play
Presented here at South, by our own 9A.

May

Our "Musical Concerts" were held in May
With melodies stirring, inviting and gay.

June

Our 9A Banquet was held in the gym
As a farewell party for "her and him."
In the June of '48, [illegible]
And the pupils of South went home once more.

CHEERLEADERS

Evelyn Vassaw, Sponsor

"Come Out Yelling!" That's the motto of our cheerleaders this year. They include Marilyn Bain, captain, Norma Buddle, Sally Waddell, Nancy Ellis, Nancy Lee Haar, Tom Wayt, Bill Smith and Jerry Williams.

All cheerleaders received an S letter for attending all basketball, volleyball and soccer games at home and sending two representatives to out of school games.

First Semester Journalism

June Roethke, sponsor

Because there is no journalism class first semester, Charlotte Bain, Nancy Lee Haar, Jim Karpicke, Dorothy Nellett, and Carole Weinberg gave their spare time in working on the school paper.

These pupils met every Monday after school for this outside activity.

MARIONETTE CLUB

Suzan Zubler, Sponsor

Tuesday nights and Friday noons finds the members of the Marionette Club working busily on the puppets for next year's puppet plays "South's Marionette Circus", and "Showboat."

Newest members are Jim Remer, Harry Hawkins, Don Cameron and Warren Culver.

Last year's members include George Hayes, Jill Ferguson, Sandra Morrison, Bruce Noble, Don Haley, Miriam Bishop and Donna Richard.

MONITORS

Beatrice Pankonin, Sponsor

Monitors for 1947-48 have done a fine job keeping order in our halls.

This year's captain is Wency Edmond, and first semester's secretary was Pat Podlecki; second semester secretary is Sharon Podlecki.

In order to receive an "S" pin, a monitor must serve one hour a day for ten consecutive weeks, and have a "B" average in both citizenship and scholarship.

The following people have earned an "S" pin: Wency Edmonds, Doris La Londe, Lorene Liebrecht, Geraldine Pittman, Sharon Podlecki, Robert Radina, Donna Richard, Florence Sprague, Shirley Stokus, and Betty Westover.

SERVICE CLUB

Nellie Miner, Sponsor

Service Club members must have 20 hours of service in order to receive an "S" pin. Helpful activities are working in the office, which includes running errands, answering the telephone, and recording attendance; assisting in the kindergarten while mothers attend education meetings; and ushering for school activities. The officers include Sally Butts, president; Dorothy Weiderhold, vice-president; Dick La Douce, secretary. Planning committee members are Marilyn Avery, Shirley Johnson, Rosaline Simon, Helen Weisheim, Patsy Fischer, and Norma Buddle. The President is also a member of the Presidents' Council.

SPORTSMEN'S CLUB

Maurice M. Guy, Sponsor

Newly organized is the Sportsmen's Club which concerns itself with hunting, fishing and out-door problems. This group which was started in February meets every Friday noon. The boys have been to the sheriff's office to see Dale Austin's collection of guns and at one meeting had a speaker on guns. Movies furnished by the state conservation department are also a part of the program.

VOCAL MUSIC GROUPS

Lillian Giere, Sponsor

Music groups such as the Seventh Grade Girls' Glee Club, Eighth and Ninth Grade Girls' Glee Club, Boys' Glee Club, Madrigal Singers, and the Gay Blades Quartet have been practicing noons and after school. The pupils participating in the Madrigal Singers and Gay Blades Quartet were chosen by tryouts.

For practicing one noon a week and having no unexcused absences, a student receives a certificate. When he has three certicfiates, and has done some some outstanding service, he is eligible for an "S" pin.

CIRCUS COMES TO TOWN !

Gay, colorful, exciting, and fun--these are words which describe the seventeenth annual Spendless and Seemore Circus which played to a capacity house Friday and Saturday, April 2 and 3.

Our concert band under the direction of Mr. Shumate played "Rifle Rangers," "The Peasant Life Overture," "March Yam," "Cossack Dance," and "Zacatacas" to get the big show off to a fine start.

Our opening spec, "Spirit of the West," was furnished by the 4-H Boots and Saddle club. Those participating were: Ida Mae Colbeck, Tom and Patsy Day, Nancy Snider, James and Gerald Rooker. George Bain, Marilyn Bain, Sally Fair, Jack Larson, and Rudy French, played for the opening spec, while Elfrieda Beyer, Sally Doerfner, Sue Hurst, Jim Karpicke, Jean Pruyne, and Lorraine Schwartzkoph sang.

The honor of reigning over the circus was bestowed by the student body upon Carole Weinberg. Elected to her court as attendants were: Norma Buddle, Beverly Cherry, Shirley Cherry and Laura Lee Patton. These five were selected from a group of twenty candidates including; Shirley Bradley, Pat Buddy, Sally Butts, Donna Dupree, Royena Ellithorpe, Lorraine Feit, Sharon Flynn, Nancy Lee Haar, Sally Keith, Jane Lee, Dalene Morningstar, Joyce Osborn, Mary Packard, Ann Robertson, and Lois Schultz. Queen Carole was crowned by our principal Mr. Guy.

Mr. Guy turned the program over to the student master of ceremonies, Terry Andre.

Rhythmic music and colorful costumes marked the " Tricky Trio" who, with their rag doll partners, gave their version of the jitterbug. Miss Kennedy accompanied these boys who were sponsored by Miss Zubler. Participants were: Franklin Cummings, Kent Heanlein, Dick Wood.

Throughout the performance the clowns, Fred Weinmann and Wayne Smith, kept the crowd in a hilarious mood with their spectacular antics. They were aided by pupil clowns Bob Cinkus, John Heinz, Malcolm Hopper, and Art Keith.

A genuine circus atmosphere prevailed during the show with pop corn, pop, red hots and balloons sold by the P.T.A.

South's own mimicking midget, Jim Remer, sang and danced. Girls accompanying him were: Norma Fultz, Lillian and Lucille Gehrcke, and Sue Hurst. Miss Zubler directed.

The Limber Imps, rightfully named, gave a splendid performance of tumbling. The Imps were: Janet Booth, Shirley Boivin, Ruth Chartrand, Marjorie Culbert, Jane Dupree, Shirley Erhlenbeck, Jacqueline Emmitt, Ernestine Japcinski, Sally Keith, Lorene Liebrecht, Judy Malzahn, Ann Metzer, Delores Meier, Sally Miller, Dorothy Mitchell, Lila May Parks, Sally Perkins, Janet Perry, Jean Pettycrew, Margaret Prather, Janet Rushlow, Lois Scott, Mary Scott and Arlene Shafley.

ALL SCHOOL PLAY

"Mrs. Plop's Exclusive, Refined, Professional Hollywood Boarding House" overrun with odd characters, is the scene of the all-school play, "Meet The Duchess." Under the direction of Mr. Eynon, this three-act comedy was presented Friday, December 5, in the school auditorium. Any junior high pupil could try for any role.

In order to make Elsie Blake, a hometown girl, appear glamorous and fit for the starring role in a new movie of Leviathan Film's, Ronnie Ward, with the help of the "boarders", transforms Elsie into a French duchess.

Comedy is provided by the residents of the boarding house who include Kewpie, a child prodigy; Mrs. Muggles, Kewpie's mother; Dixie, the colored maid; Joy January, formerly of Vaudeville; Gaylord Grant, a has-been actor; Mrs. Plop, a severe and frugal landlady; Mary, a one-time "star" now forgotten; Dinsmore, a young Harvard professor; Strudel, President of Leviathan Films.

The cast was as follows:

9A CLASS PLAY

Our 9A class play, "A Case of Springtime," a comedy in three acts by Lee Sherman, was presented April 23, under the direction of Mr. Eynon.

The plot centers around Bob Parker, a supposedly model high school boy. Bob's trouble starts when he attempts the "sawing a woman in half trick" on the high school principal's daughter, Joan Abernaker. The trick does not work! Joan, decides to throw him over for a "college man."

To help matters, Bob's teen-age brother Dickie, sets booby traps all over the house when his mother decides to entertain the P.T.A. ladies. Of course everyone believes it is Bob's doings.

But all things have to have a silver-lining somewhere and they do for Bob, for the tables turn and Bob is forgiven by the principal, safe from his college rival, and all set with his girl.

CIRCUS

The Gay Blades, a group of barber-shoppers, harmoniously sang "Strolling in the Park." The quartet consisted of Terry Andre, Larry Eynon, Jim Karpicke and John Moore. The park scene was enacated by Barbara Roush and Don Cameron. Miss Giere coached these pupils.

Skillful maneuvering on the swinging ladders by the "Star Dusters," Marilyn Bain, Charlotte Leddy, Monai Martin, Jean Pruyne, Norma Salvi, and Beverly Smith, who did spins, standouts, and toe hangs, thrilled circus fans.

"The Bowery Kids," a song and dance act, included the following performers; Lyla Braley, Janet Broihier, Nancy Ellis, Judy Epting, Jean Russell, Thomsa Stewart, George Bain, Don Becker, Virgil Cline, George Hayes, Eugene Martin, Duane Newvine. Miss Giere directed.

Towering to the height of sixteen feet, the Pyramid Builders, under Mr. Byron's direction, held the attention of the audience with their feat of remarkable balance. Boys in this act were: Bill Becker, Dick Coleman, Ronald Dietrich, Eugene Dirker, Ronald Gerger, Vincent Hurney, Verne Hawes, Bob Heidger, Jim Heidger, Dave Jones, Art Kitsch, Jack Krause, Ronald Lynch, Hugh Mc Math, Art Miller, Marvin Mitchell, Bob Rexius, Andy Robertson, Don Simon, Jim Vacik, and Darald Wallace.

"The Rollerettes" showed their skill on skates. The skaters include: Ann Alderton, Sally Balcom, Miriam Bishop, Margaret Bosley, Doris Coven, Jane Durman, Donna Fuller, Carolyn Gilbert, Nancy Haar, Mary Monk, Joyce Osborne, Lorraine Schultz, and Helen Weisheim.

Billy, the "educated" two-year old horse, commanded the attention of the audience as his trainer, Gerald Rooker, put him through his paces.

Birds, ranging from love birds to a small stork, featured the Bertelle Bird Circus. The audience thoroughly enjoyed this act, particularly the sword swallowing bird.

Performing gracefully, the "Darlings of the Air" thrilled the spectators with their acts on the flying trapeze. The group was as follows: Donna Dupree, Jane Dupree, Brenda Laidlow, Jane Livington, Barbara Mann, Sharon Podlecki, Loretta Rank, Bonnie Turner and Nancy White. Miss Vassow trained these girls as well as the "Limber Imps," "Star Dusters," and the "Rollerettes."

Comedy and a super performance were presented by Newt Loken, King of the Trampoline, who, in doing his amazing flips, kept the rapt attention of his audience. and brought to a close a "Bigger and Better Than Ever King of School Shows."

RED CROSS

Every pupil contributed to the 1947 Red Cross Drive, which resulted in a total contribution of $500.18. First place honors went to the 9A-110's who contributed $29.56 In second were the 7A-105's with $27.25; the 8A-201a's were third with $14.25, and fourth were the 9A-110a's with $13.42.

Planning committee for all Junior Red Cross activities included the following members: Bob Dust, Jack Alexander, Barbara Maul, Terry Andre, Art Kitsch, David Jones, Ruth Glass, Alan Spousta, Barbara Gierow. Miss Sandhoff was faculty sponser.

Largest source of money was through individual contributions; each homeroom achieved a 100% pupil participation.

Third Row: Andy Robertson, Jim Lange, Tom Soblesky, Herman Gierow, Dave Jones, and Roger Little.

BASKETBALL

In the eighth grade division, the junior team won 7 and lost 2 to bring home the City Junior High Championship. Our boys scored 340 points in 9 games for an average of 37¾ points per game. Their opponents scored 203 points for an average of 22½ points per game. In five of the 9 games played, South's players scored over forty points.

"We had a good team this year, but next year will tell the story." remarked Coach Noble.

South 26	Central 32
South 45	North 16
South 27	Webber 19
South 38	Central 24
South 30	North 33
South 49	Webber 16
South 41	Central 21
South 46	North 25
South 40	Webber 17

Champions of the senior division in the city, South boys have a record of 7 wins and 2 losses as follows:

South 25	Central 23
South 19	North 18 (overtime)
South 34	Webber 16

Excerpts from "TWENTY YEARS FROM NOW"—Class Prophecy

Wency Edmond, Chief of the Saginaw Police Force, proves that women can be successful even at law enforcing.

Shirley Tuck has recently added an extra room to her house to hold her post card collection.

Kathleen Buxman just succeeded Mrs. Herzog as South School office secretary.

Cecelia Bashans has everyone keeping time with her band of Brazilians.

Janet Ader and Mildred Ehmcke are happy housewives living in Saginaw.

Ronald Karp and Robert Rexius are successful Saginaw County farmers.

Ruth Glass conducts tourist parties through Europe.

Maurice Rushlow booms the commercials over WSAM.

Jane Livingston has a dude ranch in Wyoming.

Alfred Tilley is tilling the soil around Hale, Michigan, and his nearest neighbor is the John David's family.

Dianne Nellett looks very chic in her natty air plane hostess uniform.

Jane Lee has an excellent standing as veterinarian. Take your ailing pets to her.

John Heinz has made a name for himself as Michigan's spelling champion.

Lucile Johnson enjoys her work as dress designer for Nelle Don.

Myra McClure a typical old maid (or bachelor girl) lives alone with her cat and canary. Her many boy friends' pictures hang on the walls.

Paul Robinson is president of the Second National Bank and Louise Winterstein is his private secretary.

Hugh McMath and Marvin Mitchell are playing baseball, both with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Wesley Rork recently purchased Chicago's Shoreline Hotel. He made his money selling "night crawlers" to Michigan fishermen.

James Enszer's ad you will see in the News. He moves houses and digs ditches.

Noreen Stebner has just been appointed receptionist at the Art Museum.

Marilyn Dietrich married a French sailor with 9 children. Lucky she's a good cook, isn't it?

Jim Tessin is in the navy. He has visions of being a 5-star admiral in command of the Pacific Fleet.

Helen Weisheim skated in to the headlines as the Star of Skating Vanities of '58.

Nelson Keyser just completed installation of his neon sign "Rain Cabins by the Sea."

Bill Seidel is state leader for 4H club work in Michigan.

Harold Hegenauer invities former classmates to visit him at his Mohair Goat Ranch in South West Texas.

Elaine Gerow has a dancing academy. Her pupils will give a recital next week.

Sixth Grade, Room 214

This year our room has studied South America, China, India, and part of Europe. We made up a play about Pizarro in Peru.

In art we made nutcups, napkin rings, and tray covers for the Junior Red Cross. We also made cardboard Chinese dolls, for the A. C. E. convention. We made Clean-Up posters.

In music we have learned some two part songs and we learned about the band instruments.

In arithmetic we have been dividing, multipling, and subtracting, fractions and decimals.

Susanne Howe, Rachel Tiedke, and Leonard Zorn were in the radio Christmas play. We also read many books and wrote many questions for the Kid's Quiz program over W. S. A. M.

Sixth and Fifth Grade, Room 262

In science this year we had very interesting experiments with air.

The fifth and sixth grade have learned how to play the tonette and read tonette music.

The sixth grade also made foreign dolls for art. These dolls were made out of cardboard and colored paper. After they were finished we shellacked them. To make them stand up we put them in wooden stands.

Our room has had fun doing Red Cross work.

Fifth Grade, Room 260

One of the most interesting topics we studied this year was the country of Mexico. While studying Mexico we gave a play and made paper mache dishes. We gave our Mexican Christmas play over the radio and P. T. A. Another interesting study we made was of the possessions of the United States. We divided into groups and worked as travel bureaus, trying to convince people to visit the different places. We enjoyed taking part in the Kids Quiz program, the Red Cross, and Student Council discussions.

Fourth Grade, Room 252

In social studies our class learned many interesting things about Holland, Norway, Switzerland, Jungle Lands, Desert Lands, and Cold Lands.

We took part in a radio program, Christmas in Other Lands.

For science we enjoy studying about weather and performing experiments to show air pressure, evaporation, and condensation of water vapor.

It was fun to make carnival caps and greeting cards for the Red Cross to send to veterans in hospitals.

Third & Fourth Grade, Room 254

This year we learned to do cursive writing. We found that we could write much faster with cursive writing.

In the fourth grade study of the Congo we made a native village.

The third grade made Indian dresses and a tepee in our study of Indians. We also took a trip to the museum to see the Indian and pioneer things.

Third Grade, Room 258

We came back to school in September and met our old friends and some new ones. We started out by studying transportation and made a mural showing how people traveled years ago and today. Our tepee, movies, pottery, drums, headbands and armbands made it fun to study Indians after Christmas. One rainy day in March our class visited the Early Saginaw and Indian exhibits at the museum.

Second Grade, Room 256

In the fall, to help keep, safe the police department and safety were studied. The highlight of the year was the trip to Central Fire Station. While we were there a fire alarm came in so we watched the firemen dress, get the trucks out, and go to the fire. Spelling and arithmetic became fun when different games were played.

Second Grade, Room 162

Second grade has had fun this year studying and constructing a library, a freight train, and a post office.

Our study of foods was made more interesting by a visit to the dairy and by making bread and butter.

Mr. Strickland talked to us about trains and showed us his model engine.

The caterpillars we gathered in the fall have changed to pretty moths and butterflies.

First Grade, Room 160

We had lots of fun first semester making a play house and more fun playing in it. We decorated our house for Christmas with a tree and candles. We lighted up our fireplace with an electric light bulb. It looked beautiful.

We have learned to do many new things. We have read books, written stories, and have painted pretty pictures.

First Grade, Room 158

The First Grade children in Room 158 have learned many things about our community helpers. They constructed a fruit shop, a model city and a bakery shop. They learned many songs and poems about workers in our city.

First Grade, Room 152

We have learned to do many new things this year. Now we know how to read and write and spell. We have studied the farm and community helpers and now we are learning about the home. We have all learned how to weave.

SIS SNOOPER

The New Look this year has us all confused,
With ballerina skirts and shorter hair-do's.
Butch haircuts, no doubt, you have seen,
And, of course, flashy shirts and sloppy blue jeans.
Love is found at any time,
Here's some pairs on Cupid's mind.
This twosome is doing fine,
Barbara Mann and Kent Heinlein.
Everything seems to be just fine,
With Pat Buddy and Karl Klein.
Now for two that are next in line,
Jim Karpicke with Jean Pruyne.
It's about time to find a new rhyme
Because all we have left is Albert Einstein.
Here's a pair that's really jolly,
Miss Holmquist and Sir Walter Raleigh.
For a couple that's really dear,
It's Sandra Vanderstein and Dick Vanderveer.
Five o'clock and all is well,
For South's at the radio listening to Krell.
Some tunes are fast and some are slow,
Like "Four Leaf Clover" and "Pianissimo."
And which requests like the rain come in torrents?
It's "Slap Her Down Again, Paw" and our old pal "Florence!"
